THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Sr. D Pedro Agote, one of the most indefatigable of our public servants, has established a new claim on his country and his Government by the publication of the third volume of his admirable reports on the Public Debt. The volume before us is, perhaps, the most invaluable of all his publications, since it not only treats of the debts of the National Government, but also of the provinces, and supplies us with information we could never before get at. We recommend it to our merchants and bankers who will find in its 400 pages everything concerning the Public Debts of the River Plate, as also cursory notes of our banks and other financial institutions.

It is difficult to review this book except by taking up chapter after chapter, and then the multitude of figures would fatigue the general reader. We purpose at our leisure extracting from those chapters, which deal with the local and foreign debts of the various provinces, as until we looked into Mr. Agote's book, we had no idea these provinces owe as much as they do. The following summary, which Mr. Agote gives of the National and Provincial Home and Foreign Debts, and the totals of interest and amortization paid thereon, and the sum total actually due up to date, is, perhaps, one of the most interesting features of this ably compiled work :—

THE NEW ORLEANS EXHIBITION.

The French mail has brought us a neat pamphlet, giving all details about this great American Show, which opens on 10th November and closes 7th April, 1886; and, although the time is too short now to allow of Argentines taking any very prominent part in this Exhibition, still the subject is one of varied interest, and the little pamphlet contains statistics that may instruct us all.

The chief object of the Exhibition is to improve the trade relations of the States with South America, where a total population of 55 millions of consumers and producers exists; and, to enlighten the American public as to the great importance of the South American trade, the following official table of the imports and exports, and of the small share held by the United States, is given in this instructive little pamphlet :—

These figures establish two facts. First, that of a total of imports amounting to 475 millions dollars, the United States only supplies 77 millions, or say 16 per cent.; and, second, that of a total export trade of 479 millions, the United States receives but 35 per cent., which proves beyond doubt that the bulk of the trade of South America is with Europe, and not with the States; and this the Americans wish to correct.

MR. KRELL'S LETTER.

Roslyn House, Oatlands Park,
30th July, 1885.

To Henry Brockett, Esq., Chairman of the C. A. Railway Company, Palmerston Buildings, E.C.

Sir,

Referring to the General Meeting of Proprietors held on the 15th inst., I, in addressing the meeting, made two mistakes—the one that your co-Director, Mr. Shaw, went out to the River Plate procuring the concession of the "Sunchales Extension" for the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway; and the other, that he procured it in his own name. Of the latter I was positively assured in Rosario by persons that ought to have known, and therefore, believing it, wrongly concluded that Mr Shaw himself had been out there at the time. Still, I do not see that these mistakes of mine alter the face of affairs at all, but, on the contrary, his absence from here might have given him an excuse; he might not have known at the time what the intentions of your Board of Directors were. That the concession was not given to him in his own name, is also in itself of little account, as it was made perfectly clear by Mr. Parish, who, speaking in the name of himself and Mr. Shaw, acknowledged that for reasons of delay and indecision of your Board, of which they are members, they obtained the concession, but not for the benefit of our Railway, but for that of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway. This, I hold, they were enabled to do, through knowledge they acquired as Directors of our railway, which is corroborated by the following facts, which I have since obtained from our office, viz :—

1.—In the month of November, 1881, a line of railway was projected from the Santa Fé Colonies to join the Central Argentine Railway at Carcaraña—about 130 miles. This proposal was very fully reported upon by the Company's General Manager.

See plan and detailed particulars.

2. The proposed extension was the subject of much consideration by the Board, and was favourably entertained.

3. In the month of June, 1882, the opinion of Counsel was taken as to the powers of the Company to undertake the construction and working of branch lines of railway, and it was then ascertained that it was not within the competency of the Company to make the proposed line.

See the opinions of Mr. Horace Davey, Q.C., and Mr. Phipson Beale.

4. The only mode of giving effect to the proposal above referred to would be to form a new Company, with a new and independent capital. And from the discussions which had already taken place, it was clear that the Directors would be prepared to do all in their power to further such an enterprise, as will be seen from the following extract from the Board's special letter of 2nd of August, 1882, to the Company's Representative at Buenos Ayres :—

"The Board are not only desirous but determined to give effect to the wishes of the Government, so far as may be possible, in reference to their requirements as to the construction of a line of Railway from the Carcaraña Station of the Central Argentine Railway, or thereabouts, to the Santa Fé Colonies."

5. About this time Mr. Russel Shaw put forward a project, and, I believe, was negotiating in his private capacity for a concession for the making of a line from the Western Railway on the Arroyo del Medio to the port of Rosario, through a tunnel to the Central Argentine Station, thence to San Lorenzo, Colony of Jesus Maria, Colony Esperanza, with a branch to the capital of Santa Fé—total length of line about 180 miles.

See "Heads of Concession," for which application was made to the Government of Santa Fé.

6. Negotiations were still pending with the National Government, and the following is an extract from the Board's special letter to the General Manager of the Company, dated March, 1883, bearing on the same subject :—

"You are aware that the Central Argentine Railway Company is by its constitution precluded from constructing any very great extension of its system, further than such as may be considered desirable for providing accommodation to the particular district which it was originally intended to supply; but the Board are prepared to undertake (should this prove to be an important matter of interest to the Government) to use their best endeavours themselves, and with their proprietors to promote and found a company with an adequate capital, for the construction of a line of railway from some convenient point on the Central Argentine, with all necessary works for the supply of railway accommodation to the Santa Fé Colonies; and a line of railway to connect the existing Central Argentine Railway, at its Rosario station, with the north-western extremity of the Western Railway of B. Ayres, on terms to be arranged with that company, under the approval of the Government; so as to place Cordoba and the interior provinces of Santa Fé in direct railway communication with Buenos Ayres and the south."

7.—In the month of February, 1884, the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway was incorporated.

8.—On the 3rd of July, 1884, the Board telegraphed to the company's representative at Buenos Ayres, "Extension Colonies under discussion;" and in writing to Mr. Thompson, on the 8th of the same month, the secretary mentioned, "We are given to understand that the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway Company are in the field seeking to obtain a concession for the extension of their line to Santa Fé.

9.—Mr. Thompson, writing on the 7th of the same month from B. Ayres, stated as follows :—

"Mr. Coghlan received a telegram from the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway Company, telling him to apply for the concession—adding that the Central Argentine Railway Board had no objection."

10.—Special meetings of the Board were held on the 24th and 25th July, when the Directors resumed consideration of the matter; and it was decided to await the arrival of Mr Parish in London before taking further action.

11.—On the 1st of August, the chairman, after having considered the despatches from Buenos Ayres and Rosario, in further reference to the proposed Branch Line, wrote to the Secretary as follows :—

"I am of opinion that it will be well for us to make it, and, therefore, I would suggest that a telegram be at once sent to Mr. Fisher, authorising him to apply for the concession."

And in reply the Secretary wrote to Mr. Brockett as follows :—

"As regards the proposal that our Company shall apply for a Concession for the Branch Line to the Santa Fé Colonies, I have seen our friend, Mr. Travers Smith, again on this subject; and he concurs with me, that in view of the telegram, which, it appears from Mr. Thompson's communication to us had already been sent by the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway Company, that it will be better to defer taking action in the matter until the arrival in London of Mr. Parish and Mr. Coghlan, when the business can be fully gone into."

The above seems to me to show plainly that Messrs. Parish and Shaw, the principal parties of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway Company, kept you and your other colleagues in the dark about their intentions, and surprised you as much by their action as they did me and those on the spot in Rosario.

Reason I write now to you, sir, is your refusal to allow me to speak again at the General Meeting, in reply to Mr. Parish, to show that his own statement did not agree with that of Mr. Shaw, which gave the impression that he, Mr. Shaw, had nothing whatever to do with obtaining the concession of the "Sunchales Extension" Line—and also prevented me from calling on you, our respected chairman, or any of the other directors, to let us proprietors have your or their opinions on this extraordinary transaction—but nothing of the sort being offered, I venture to hold that your own and their opinions were not antagonistic to those expressed by me.

Besides, I had intended to take the liberty to point out to you and the proprietors what I think might be done to lessen coming evils, and I shall herein refer to this subject—the interest I feel, and have always felt, in the success of the Central Argentine Railway, being only reason which prompts me in doing this, must be my excuse.

But before doing so I wish to call attention to the remarks made at the General Meeting by Mr. van Tromp and Mr. Batten.

LONDON LETTER.

DECOMPOSITION OF POLITICAL PARTIES AND OPINIONS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

August 7th.

"We are informed," says a paper, "that Mr. Parnell is hesitating as to whether he shall make a definite and formal pronouncement against Michael Davitt. Sooner or later this must come. Michael Davitt is the champion of the labourers in Ireland; as such he declares against farmers and gombeen men. So rapidly have steam and electricity decomposed the previous conditions of society that Charlie Parnell, like John Bright in England, is now a Girondist, and may yet sit in the same Cabinet with Lord Randolph Churchill.

Mr. Chamberlain, in his latest manifesto at Hull, said, what many others have said, that in regard to the present and fundamental changes in political England, "his wildest expectations have been surpassed."

I will try and condense, and analyse the opinions expressed by Mr. Chamberlain in his important speech. He is accused of being a Socialist and a Communist by silly people who do not know the meaning of the terms they use. He is a Socialist in the sense that Lord Salisbury is when he tells us, as he did the other day, that his Socialism consists in applying the power and resources of society to benefit one particular class, especially the most needy." Now, compared with the views of Earl Wemyss and the Duke of Argyll, who think that even the most needy are best served by applying the power and resources of society to protect the sanctity of property, and particularly landed property, Lord Salisbury is Socialistic; and Mr. Chamberlain goes a step further in wishing to change the machinery of domestic society to the extent of increasing the scope and power of local Government, so that society may not mean, as, perhaps, Lord Salisbury means the Government, in the shape of Lords and Commons, but the people themselves organised in communes or local parliaments acting in the counties, as Mr. Chamberlain says, the urban municipalities have acted, and with great success. This means a mere extension of the existing machinery, without change of principle, to convert it into a socialistic regime, the local Governments must have the power of organising production. And the land, which is the first instrument of production, must be the property of the commune, as it was partly, in England in the 15th century; so that Mr. Chamberlain is still a long way from socialism, but it is quite acknowledged that both he and Lord Salisbury, in altering the existing machinery, are preparing it for the hands of the socialists, when, as a party in the State, they are strong enough to seize it.

Mr. Chamberlain says pretty much what Stuart Mill said before him, when he reminds us that a condition of things in which "hundreds of thousands, nay, millions, of your fellow-countrymen, are subjected to untold privation with all the evidence around them of unexampled luxury," cannot be perfect or final. Well, that is the point we all start from, and the question is, whether, admitting with the economists and the statisticians, that by giving further free play to natural and economic laws which have, so far, worked wonders for the lower classes and all classes, it would not be better to go on on the same principle of free competition and individual protection and benefit. Mr. Chamberlain, judging from his speech at Hull, is evidently of the opinion that it would; and, as a practical statesman, it might be folly in him to promulgate any other opinion. But in his recent—very recent—reading on the subject, he must have discovered that what the socialistic economists contend, is that the object he has in view is impossible to attain, so long as the capitalist secures his profit out of excess of labour.

Mr. Chamberlain wants, he says, to raise the condition of the poor, to give them more leisure and recreation, to equalise wealth, to check disease, and, doubtless, with an eye to late disclosures in the Pall-Mall Gazette, to check the immorality of the poor. But what is his remedy? Evidently to pull down the great landowners, not, as he expressly gives us to understand, by the confiscation of their property, but by "graduated taxation." He tells us that 26 millions of working men pay 13½ per cent taxes on the 203 millions they earn, whilst 9½ millions belonging to the upper and middle classes pay only 6 per cent. on the 639 millions they earn and possess. Mr. Chamberlain's hearers cry "shame;" but that is all rubbish, or merely pottering with great questions, unless the increased taxation of the rich is to mean, as Henry George means, virtual confiscation and a convenient method of nationalising the land. The mere remission of 6 per cent. in taxes will not give the workers recreation and leisure, or make them much more refined or moral. It will always be something, and that is all. Mr. Chamberlain talks also of entail, and settlements, and land-grabbing. Of course, n times gone by, when "our wildest expectations" seemed even to ourselves wild and hopeless, we all imagined that these things would revolutionise the state of society. Now, we know better; and admitting that these mere items of reform will have to be done, and done quickly, we quite understand, that they will only result in a brisker home trade, higher wages or at least more permanent employment, and in a transfer of money from the pockets of the very wealthy to those of the general mass of scrambling workers, whilst there will not be much less intemperance, much less immorality and degradation among the working classes themselves; who to be richer—which is admittedly an object—will have to work hard or harder. Mr. Chamberlain's idea, if it be attainable at all, will never be attained by such remedies, good as they may be, as far as they go. In fact they have all been tried in Europe for nearly a century, and the state of the working classes on the continent is not such as to permit us to place much faith in the alteration of the land laws alone; granting that in many other respects, in regard to political and commercial freedom, the English labourer is in a better position than his continental brothers, to enable him to benefit by any charges of the kind. But in one vital respect he is in a worse position. The climate, soil, and production of England, and Scotland, and Ireland are least suited than any to peasant proprietorships. That is perhaps the chief reason why the land reforms in Ireland have not had the result hoped for, and why even Mr. Shaw Lefevre shakes his head whilst supporting the Conservative Government in passing his own measure, the Land Purchase (Ireland) bill, just read for the third time in Parliament. Mr Davitt is nearest to the truth; and we see how Lord Salisbury and Mr Chamberlain, the one because he has a dim vision of the truth, and the other because he cannot help it and finds his hand forced by the new conditions around him, are working for Mr Davitt and his friends. 'Lastly,' says the good Mr Chamberlain, 'I would insist upon the restitution of the property to the community where it has been wrongfully appropriated.' Oh, Mr C., what a question you are raising! You mean commons, and enclosurers, and endowments. Bless you man, we all live in an enclosure wrongfully appropriated. Did not the Earl of Wemyss in his speech on Socialism remind the Peers that a certain professor of political economy had said last autumn "that some of their lordships ought not to have any existence at all; and that their ancestors ought to have been hanged." The Peers laughed.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Australians need not fear being troubled with any of the 100,000 Recidivists, at least that the new law applies to, and of whom 6,000 are under bolts and bars for shipment anywhere; anywhere, if out of France. A sum of 1,150,000 francs has been voted to commence the work of moral sanitation. It is a drop in the ocean, a mere fleabite, and in the general opinion is merely destined as a blind, to shirk dealing radically with the gangrene. All through the discussion the government has not supplied statistics or estimates, Since the law of 1854 came into operation, one can independently make a fair approximation of the sums expended : 30,000 prisoners have been transported, of whom 16,000, went to Cayenne, and 14,000, to New Caledonia, representing an official expenditure, of fr. 150 millions. On this basis the ratio-cost for 100,000 scoundrels, waiting to leave their country for their country's good, would amount to five hundred millions francs—half a milliard, or one-fifth more than the sum thrown into the gulf of Tonkin. But if the cost be estimated on what England expended when she transported convicts, the figure would be frs. 600 millions, and for what, to prosecute a scheme that England herself has relinquished? France cannot expend such a sum, so the Southern Pacific will not become the grand sewer for the incorrigible immorality of France.

French gaiety is inexhaustible, and may the spring never run dry. M. Chabert, of the Municipal Council, is doubtless an admirer of Jean Jacques Rousseau, who left to the parish the care of bringing up his doxies. M. Chabert has down for discussion, that the children of both sexes born in Paris, shall be reared and educated at the expense of the Capital, and that the old aged, or those incapacitated for work, shall be boarded and lodged at the expense of the city. Now the Municipality is a rich corporation, but the State if necessary is to be called on to help. With that law, the population of France will, in point of augmentation, put Teuton mothers into the shade. Henri IV aimed to secure a fowl in the pot every Sunday for every family. French modern democracy has for ideal, that in the cradle of every little stranger is to be deposited a guarantee of 10,000fs. a year income, and exclusive of the chance of finding a marshal's baton in his knapsack, in case he became a soldier. Conscripts, to escape military service, have ere now cut off a little finger or broken a couple of teeth. To tide over the period between adolescent, and old age, in order to escape lifework and secure bed and board at the expense of the State, a citizen will only have to catch a good rheumatism, and so possess a joy for ever.

The Omnibus Company of Paris is a monopoly; it has 55 lines, only 22 of which pay. Hesitating to open any more unremunerative lines, M. Pichon has proposed the following "perfect cure," to be tagged on the motion for cancelling the Buss company monopoly: "All the company's offices and stables to be sold, and the proceeds handed over to the political convicts"; all shareholders are to place their Scrip in the hands of the President of the Municipal Council, who shall direct it to be publicly burned where heretics, cats and printers used to be cremated, before the Hotel de Ville; all shareholders be transported for life. As Prudhon declared property to be robbery, the possessors of it must expect some day to be overtaken by a Nemesis.

Paris is shocked by a very brutal proceeding on the part of a medical man. In the poor part of the city an artisan resided, whose wife took ill with the pains of labor during the night. He called in a doctor who stated the confinement would be difficult, and that he could not give his services under a sum of 200 fr. and cash down; the workman offered all he possessed 100 fr., his watch, clothing, and written promise to pay; anything in fact, so that his wife was saved. The doctor refused—and left. Two hours later the mother was dead; no other physician could be obtained in the interim. The trial of Dr. Estachy has again been adjourned for another term. He is accused of attempting to poison his confrère, Dr. Tournatoire, both of Vaucluse, from motives of professional jealousy and political hate. In May last he sent a present of thrushes to Dr. Tournatoire all drugged with the powerful poison atropine. The doctor did not much care for that kind of Game, so gave the birds to his mother-in-law and the servants, all of whom were nearly poisoned; Dr. Estachy stated he did it only for a joke, but later denied having done it at all. Madame de Martel, residing at Neuilly on the Boulevard Bineau, is a literary lady who works at night only, like George Sand. A few nights ago a pull was given at the gate-bell; she opened her window to know who was there; for reply two shots were fired at her, one ball grazed her head, the other her breast, and both lodged in the wall. "En passant," the only business that is active in Paris is apparently the sale of fire-arms; there are plenty of shops closing, many tradesmen being compelled by the bad times to retire from business; alone, the gunsmiths seem to flourish like a bay-tree; enlarging premises is common to the craft.

Pending that formal permission be accorded to the Municipal Council to open fire with its newly erected cremators in the Pére Lachaise cemetry, a firm invites bereaved families not to bury their lost members, but to patronize the galvanoplastic process of M. Kergovaz, by which corpses are made beautiful for ever, electro-plated in a word, and so capable of becoming a household ornament. Imagine a man converting his mother-in-law into a vestibule statue instead of the common man in coat of mail and lance, or the full grown grinning nigger in old hickory, holding out a tray on which to deposit your hat and gloves.

Madame Jugres writes, that it is all a joke saying her husband prided himself more on being a fiddler, than a renowned painter. He liked Symphonic music, and knew it, but not in the sense of the joke coined for him.

An attempt to take the photo. of the monkeys in their cage at the Zoo gardens, has failed; the missing links threw gravel at the camera, the moment it was set fair. The antelope, never budged; but at the psychological moment, it quietly walked over to a nurse who offered it a bit of bread through the railing; then out of gratitude, or to show its contempt for the fine arts, it commenced to roll on the ground like a donkey. One cockatoo expressed its indignation at the artist, by wildly calling out, "police" and "fire."

Coquellin junior, the actor, studied the role of Ruy-Blas, and called on a a linen draper, a noted dramatist, to judge of his fitness for the stage, Section tragedy. The friend listened to the declamation and said. "With study, and not biting your words, you may become a good—comic actor." Realised.

The amateur circus Molliere has decreed its laurel crown, to one of the performers, who is wealthy, and the fattest baron in Paris—hence his funny name, "Baron de Bœuf Gras;" he imitated the elephant dancing on a tub with bells, riding on a bycle, and playing a barrel organ.

Louis XVIII. was urged by his Cabinet to prohibit the entry of the Satirical Nain Jaune journal into France: "Well, gentlemen," said he to his Ministers, "wait at least till my subscription be expired."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The congregation attending St. John's Anglican Church are about to give a substantial proof of their appreciation of the services of the present incumbent; the Rev. A.G.L. Robertson, by presenting him with the proceeds of a subscription now being raised for this purpose among the Anglican community. Mr. Robertson who resigns his charge on the arrival of the Rector elect, well deserves this recognition of the zeal, earnestness, and unselfish consideration for the general good which he has displayed both as Pro-Rector and as choir master. Subscriptions towards the Robertson testimonial may be sent either to the Hon. Treasurer or to any of the members of the Select Vestry.

Yesterday Mr. Kinch left in the Royal Mail for England. One of our leading English houses gave him a champagne lunch, and he was accompanied to the mole by a crowd of friends, who hope to see him soon back again in the Plate.

The French mail brings the following fresh advices respecting the great London high life scandal of Mr. Crawford and Sir Chas Dilke :—

"As I have mentioned in the references to the case it has been necessary to make, the affair, contrary to the earliest impression of the public, is one of old standing. The date fixed in the charge is more than a year ago, and it was during the excitement engendered by the recent publication of prurient reports as to the moral condition of London that Mrs. Crawford made the confession to her husband. Since then she has withdrawn the allegation, and protests that it was made in a hysterical moment. This will be awkward for the prosecution; but they rely upon what is, I believe, the fact that some time ago Mrs. Crawford made a similar confession to a friend. This lady, a widow well known in London society, has been induced, it is said, most unwillingly, to make an affidavit relating Mrs. Crawford's conversation with her, and upon this the prosecution lay much stress. There will be no evidence forthcoming in the shape of letters, but an attempt will be made to prove the interchange of visits by the evidence of domestics. One peculiarity of the case is that it cannot come on till after the general election. This, it will be seen at once, is a matter of great embarrassment to Sir C. Dilke, and may take a form in which it would become a matter of national interest."

The Central News states a telegram has been received in London by an intimate friend of Mrs. Mark Pattison, who is in India, requesting that her formal engagement with Sir Charles Dilke may be publicly announced.

Dr. Irigoyen arrived yesterday all right in Cordoba, where he received every congratulation from the most respectable people at his miraculous escape. Telegrams from all parts of the country have also been sent him of the same import, and, as we have already said, this scandalous attack on him has immensely helped his cause.

The report of Dr. Laurencena, Minister of the Government of Entre Rios, was given round yesterday, and will much interest many of our readers. We note that the official statement of the live stock existing in Entre Rios is so :—

Vacuno criollo and mestizo........	3,884,200
Id Durham and Hereford breed.	1,965
Sheep mestizo..........	4,954,600
Id pure breed............	7,182
Id mares...............	477,700
Id id de raza............	683
Horses.........................	166,390
Bueyes.........................	63,000
Mules..........................	5,350

These returns show an increase over the year 1883, of 1,211,872 cows, 927,743 sheep and 172,866 mares. The report contains much useful information about the colonies in Entre Rios and area under agriculture, and we hold the book over for a special chapter.

It may interest those of our readers who own lands in the fifth section of the Province of Buenos Ayres to know that at last all the papers respecting the surveys etc., have been concluded, and that in a few days the decree will be out when owners will be able to apply for their titles.

The National gunboat Azopardo got up steam yesterday and will be despatched on special mission. No one save the Captain and the War Minister know the destination.

We salute Mr. Ortiz Rosas as the new Minister of public works for the province; a capital Minister he will make, as he is one of our most progressive and talented members of the Provincial Government.

Miss Berrenechea's wedding, yesterday, was another fashionable event. All the gardens of Buenos Ayres were stripped of their gayest flowers for the wedding.

Mr. Shenànn the well-known estanciero left yesterday in the Tagus for England. We hear he intends to permanently reside in England. His estancia in the South is one of the finest properties in this country.

Mr. Blake ex-M.P. for Waterford writes us from Rosario that he started yesterday for Asuncion Paraguay, and on his return he will take a run up to Mendoza, to have a look at the great Andes.

Mr. Pellegrini it seems after all will not be here before the 25th They say that the loan is done and everything settled, and that the Executive on the closing of Congress at the end of this month will ratify all the terms.

Telegrams from London yesterday gave the following results of the St. Leger :

Melton—1
Isobar—2
Lonely—3

The time for enrolment closes on 30th inst, so those whose duty it is to enrol have not much time to spare.

Mr. John Browne estanciero of Lujan informs us that he never saw the camps looking better than at present, and if the weather keep so shearing will begin all over the country immediately.

The Carolinas question is not settled yet, nor will it be. We stick to our text : Bismarck wants a row, a general one preferred, and will have it if possible. It sounds rather funny to hear of a "German fleet" being ordered to the Mediterranean. The local Dons are furious with John Bull for putting in his oar on Mein Herr's side; and, indeed, we think he might have abstained from doing so.

The pet weather of the last few days coaxes everybody out of bed at daylight, and street noises are now in full blast at 6½ a.m. although winter won't be over till Sunday night. We greatly fear that the "tiempo" is far too beautiful to last.

They are going to start animal Fairs at San Pedro. A Committee has been formed; but we do not see any of our wealthy countrymen out there on it. "Como es esto?"

The Prensa exposes a gigantic swindle of which our neighbours the Brazilians, Chilians and Peruvians are the victims. They are all three far more ardent Lottery players than Argentines, and eagerly buy up in hundreds of thousands tickets of an imaginary Lottery supposed to be drawn in Buenos Aires. The queer part of it is that the victims consider this Lottery as quite above suspicion, and the fraud has been successfully carried on for years.

The Concejo Deliberante cannot be got together. It missed again last night. Perhaps so much the better. The Lord Mayor wants it to sanction a ten million loan, and the present is no time for giving his Lordship any more cash to scatter to the winds.

We are glad to see our friend Messrs Corkhill and Diego Moore to the fore amongst the winners at the Ayacucho Fair the former with horned cattle and the latter with poultry.

Young Lascano, who tried to commit suicide the other day, did so owing to unrequited love. Perhaps the fair one will now relent and make him happy.

The political electioneering news yesterday made the earth tremble. Three of the candidates retire and put forward Dr. Edward Costa (A tip-top man in every respect) to oppose the official candidate with all their influence. The shot fired at Dr. Irigoyen in Tucuman has reeachoed over the whole country and suddenly changed the whole face of the electioneering campaign.

Mr. Gustave Vernet wants to buy over 1000 leagues of land in the Chaco from the Paraguayan Government in one lot. It should not be given to him. Some day some speculator will want to buy in one lot all the Public Lands remaining in the Republic, the whole of Paraguay in fact.

The latest about sugar is that the Augier mill in the Chaco yields double any other "ingenio" in the country.

From sugar to flour is but a step. The Santa Fé millers are whiter than usual in the face, as they have discovered that they have no market for half their flour, and the chances are they will have to make a present of it to their poor relations.

A colleague very properly calls the attention of the City Analyst to another class of "industriales del pais." Ices omelettes, tarts and all kinds of abominable things are now freely hawked about the streets, and even people who would be greatly offended if you called them the lower classes are to be seen buying them. The sharp toot-toot of the horns of the ice men are also a confounded nuisance. Why allow them to blow horns? As well might Sommer toot a horn at his door to announce the sale of his unequalled white hats for summer.

The Lord Mayor, or the Consejo, or the City Engineer, or perhaps the lot together, have been what they call levelling the roads in Sta. Lucia parish, and the result has been a wail of protest from the local Health Board, owing to the way in which the "levelling" has been done. Nothing, absolutely nothing, can be done right in these regions. Even the new Bolsa had to be blundered, to be in the fashion.

Our dear old friend the "Indio malon" has turned up again. At South Pole Corner and even Choel-e-Choel the savages have been raiding of late, and recently had a brush with Colonel Godoy's men. They sell the stolen horses and cattle in Chile. We hope they wont steal the few editorial cattle on the Rio Negro.

The fellow that shot at Dr Irigoyen was a low hide-buyer. Don Bernardo refused to allow him into the railway carriage to speak with him, and the ruffian then fired through the window from the platform. If he had been allowed into the carriage, the amiable ex-Minister of the Interior was done for.

An old Cornish coach-driver recommended a traveller to keep to the roads. Pointing with his whip to one of the aerial viaducts of the railway hanging like a thread from hill to hill he said, "If I turn you over here, why, here you are; but, if they turn you over there, why, where are you?"

We see that some of our most thoroughly esteemed colleagues are again alluding to the exploded scheme of cutting the province of B. Ayres into three, and saddling the unfortunate country with two more Governments. Forbid it Fate!

The report that Chiarini the circus man had died in a Paris Hospital, a pauper, is another of the gross newspaper lies of the day. Chiarini has some very snug house property in Montevideo, and we believe a little in this city also.

Colonel Spika's proposed reforms in the Argentine cavalry have been adopted by the War Office. The spiked helmet question is in abeyance.

Mr. Darius Moreno labours under the delusion that he has found real coal in Tucuman, and is dreaming of making a huge fortune by supplying the locomotives on the railways. All pure moonshine, dear Darius! There is not a pound of genuine coal in the country.

Who's the fool in Montevideo who has paid 1,500 pats for a gold cradle for his baby? There must be some truth in what a London money paper said a few months ago.

A girl who lived in Vincennes
Had a foot that was simply immennes,
But she broke it one day
While trying to play
At the popular game of lawn tennes

We take the following from an exchange:—"Atalanta has a colored constable who cannot read. When he is given subpœnas to serve the Judge draws on their backs pictures representing persons named therein. If a woman is wanted the outlines of a female are drawn, and they remind the constable of the circumstances. In each case the drawing is made applicable to the charge in the paper."

Husband (reading from Scott): "Not one woman in twenty marries the first love. How was it in your case, my dear?"—Wife: "How was it in your case?"—Husband: "You must make the first confession—don't answer like a parrot by asking me the same question." Wife: "Well, here's the honest truth. If you married your first love, I married my first. If you didn't, I didn't."

Dysentery, Cholera Fever, Ague Coughs, Colds, &c.
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
(Ex Army Medical Staff)
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.
REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.
CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests too often fatal diseases Diphtheria Fever, Croup, Ague.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charming Diarrhoea, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer Toothache, Meningites, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congralulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhoea, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne or the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

The gold market opened to-day fully prepared for another stiff fall, but the bears, strange to say, failed to follow up to any great extent yesterday's success. Whether exhausted by their speculative efforts or satisfied with the fall of 2 o/o, the bears looked overpowered by the heat of the weather, and limited their attack this morning to the sale of a few hundred thousand dollars. The bear King sold fair amounts, but the market to-day made a determined stand and resisted the fall. Over one hundred thousand dollars changed hands for cash; the market opened at 37½, rose to 38 and closed at 37.80, slightly above the opening rate. Fifty thousand were sold at the same rates for Saturday. Speculation for the end of the month was only a shadow of yesterday's feverish speculation; half a million dollars were sold at 37½ to 38, the market closing at 37.80. Operations for the end of October embraced 170,000 $m/n; rates opened at 36½ and closed at 37. The gold market this morning opened with a wavering tendency, rose slightly, and ruled firm until toward the close of official hours, when the bear King stepped forward and began selling freely for Saturday and the end of the month.

An intense, bearish atmosphere is gathering in the hall and round the ring. The turn in the gold market is followed, as usual, by a sudden revulsion of speculative feeling and the majority of big and small dealers are operating now for a fall. There is a suspicion that the Provincial Bank will put up its exchange rates, and it is whispered that the National Commissioner's arrival and movements in Rio de Janeiro have been telegraphed to this market. Some speculators say that paper is getting scarce, and that some strong parties are hoarding paper, etc etc. These are the rumors of the moment.

A firm reaction is creeping into the Cedula market and prices to-day showed a firmer front. Series F show an inclination to rise to their former high quotations. A few thousand Series E were sold cash at 81. Operations in Series F embraced 15,000 for cash at 80¼-½, and 10,000 for the end of the month at 80. About 100,000 Series G changed hands for cash at 87½; a few thousand were sold for to-morrow at 87½ also, and for the end of October at 86⅞. Both paid-up shares and Certificates of the National Bank are coming to the front. The Board of the Bank have decided nothing as yet with regard to the half-year's dividend, and no resolution will be passed until Congress decides the fate of the Forced Currency Bill. The sanction of this bill will put 50 o/o more dividend into the pockets of the lucky shareholders. Operations at the ring this morning embraced 50 shares for cash at 147, 300 for the 30th at 149 and 148, and 400 for October at 150. Five hundred Certificates were sold for the end of the month at 109½. Fifty shares of the New Bolsa changed hands at 150; this is a fall of ten points since last operation.

The exchange market rules weak. Rates are quoted at 46⅜-½. At these rates little business can be expected, as it pays to ship gold at profit.

Mr Wm. D Evans, so well known on both sides of the Plate, has sold his business in the Mount to Messrs P Hormes & Co. for 70,000$, including naval store and vessels.

Messrs Bulrich & Co. have sold the following half-blood Percheron horses from Mr Luro's well-known stud:—

'Goliat' 240$ m/n, buyer Sr Solveyra; 'Pacha' 390$, buyer Benigno Ocampo; 'Ali' 250$, buyer Andres Egaña (hijo); 'Hercules' 230$, buyer Francisco Giraldo; 'Bayard' 180$ buyer Souza; 'Friton' 160$, buyer Gen. Winter; 'Anteo' 260$, buyer Chapard.

Our colleague El Diario states that the new Pellegrini loan contract will be sanctioned by the Government, without any intervention whatever of Congress; that the three loans will be negotiated separately, and that the whole affair may be considered signed and sealed, as the government must conclude the business "coute que coute". The returns of the Custom House will be pawned and all the onerous conditions of the first contract will stand in the present one.

The following extracts from the new licence tax bill before Congress will be read with interest by those who are concerned in contributions to the State:—

A few hundred thousand gold dollars were sold during afterhours. The market opened slightly weak, but suddenly grew firm. The market closed at 38.20, buyers. Operations were small, and the speculation was very dull.

Sixteen thousand bags of Tucuman sugar and 2,443 barrels of San Juan wine, arrived at Rosario during the fortnight. Tucuman sugar is coming down to this market every day and the good qualities move off fast.

Dr Pellegrini, we hear, will not be able to land in Buenos Aires before the 25th inst. This means four days' respite to the bulls on 'Change. The arrival of the commissioner, according to the Bolsa augurs, means another rapid fall in the gold premium, but affairs on 'Change are so contradictory that often the unexpected happens.

The Provincial Bank made no change in its drawing rates to-day. The Exchange Committee did not meet, and the President of the Bank was absent in La Plata.

The surveys of the Vth Section of land in the South of the Province of Buenos Ayres will be approved before the end of the month. All the plans of the Section are ready, and the Engineers' Department is putting a finishing hand to the surveys of Mr. Cascallares, who measured the Section three years ago.

We see in the London Economist of the 15th ult. that B. Ayres Great Southern Railway Shares have advanced 4 and Central Argentine 2. The Orion had arrived with £73,000 from this port, and £105,000 had been withdrawn from the Bank for the R. Plate.

The linseed plantations of this province and of Santa Fé promise an abundant crop. Farmers have great hopes this season, and several large linseed contracts are spoken of.

Produce men do not relish the fall in gold, and they think that if the decline continues, wool will be forwarded to the markets in very small quantities next month. Limits for purchases are very low and the fall in gold makes them appear still lower. The demands of the season are being felt in the money market. Paper is in more demand and will rule tight next month.

It is rumored that the National Deputies will throw out the clause in the Forced Currency Bill, increasing the issue of notes of the National Bank. It is stated further that this possibility, or rather probability in the eyes of the bears is the chief basis of the present speculation for a fall.

It appears that part of the cargo of the Hermes will be saved. The small steamer General Rivera arrived at the Mount yesterday with a small vessel in tow, with part of cargo and some animals from the wreck.

A San Juan wine merchant has sold to a firm in Cordoba four-years old wine at 15$m/n per arrobe. The same party sold a few barrels of this year's wine at 6$m/n per arrobe. We wonder why the San Juan wine men do not sell their wine by the litre; selling by the arrobe sounds queer.

A colleague announces that Mr Castellano has sold his wharves on the Parana for 250,000 $m/n.

The millers of Santa Fe turn out 500,000 bags of flour per annum, according to a newspaper of that Province. The accumulation of flour is so great and the demand of this market so small, that the millers, it is feared, will have a bad time of it next year, as the production is increasing rapidly. The stock of flour in this market is considered large. Bauer & Siegel quality sells at 26, Berroz at 24, Carlota at 22 to 23. Whole cargoes of flour have been shipped to Brazil.

A leading sugar planter of Formosa is at present here giving orders and making preparations to establish a sugar factory in that northern extremity of the Gran Chaco. The sugar plantations of Formosa have given brilliant results. Mr. Augier, who has a large plantation, reaped 186 tons of cane per hectare. Such bountiful yield speaks highly in favor of the great fertility of the Chaco soil. This yield is double that ever reached in any other part of the Republic.

Mr Gustav Vernet has applied to the Paraguayan Government for the purchase of a principality of 1,050 square leagues of land. A Syndicate in this market, it is said, will buy this immense area of land. The speculation in Paraguayan lands promises to be very brisk.

Advices from the Rio Negro valley state that the season has been unsatisfactory to sheepfarmers. The cold weather and drought made great havoc in the flocks, and there is little or no increase this year. The farmers on the South bank of the river suffered more than the settlers on the North bank.

An estanciero, who drove cattle from Viedma to the Limay, on the South bank of the river, writes that both cattle and sheep arrived safely, in spite of the snow and cold weather. It snowed for six days, and for leagues the snow was from two to three feet deep. Cattle are in excellent condition, as a rule, but the sheep in the valley are thin and scabby. During the month of August farmers drove their flocks up the hills to seek shelter from the wind in the bush forest.

The following remarks of the Economist on the British Board of Trade Returns for July are very interesting:—

"The slightly more favourable appearance which characterised the Board of Trade Returns for June has been quite lost this month. In July the imports amounted to only £31,848,000, being a decrease of about 7 o/o as compared with the corresponding month of last year, while the exports have fallen off nearly 9 o/o, the total being only £19,174,000. For the seven months of the year the imports exhibit a loss of nearly 4 o/o, and the exports a loss of over 9 o/o as compared with 1884.

"Some interesting returns are given in this month's statement, which show in a concise form our imports and exports with foreign countries and the colonies during the first half of the current year. The totals are as follows; 000's omitted:—

	1885	1884	1883
	£	£	£
Foreign countries..	66,435	76,167	75,616
British possessions	37,962	39,453	41,350
	104,397	115,620	116,966

Compared with 1884, it will be seen that our exports to foreign countries decreased about 13 o/o, and those to British possessions only about 3¾ o/o.

"The bulk of the decrease in this month's imports is due to a reduction of £2,003,000 in the value of raw materials imported for textile manufactures, and by far the largest part of this is to be found under the head of cotton. In July we received only 451,390 cwts., valued at £1,232,210, as against 908,630 cwts., valued at 2,355,970, in the same month of 1884. The falling off is under all categories, but it is mainly divided between the U. States and the East Indies. There is a considerable shrinkage in wool, due to smaller arrivals from the Australias, also in flax and silk.

"The export side of our trade account is not very pleasant reading this month. The total only amounted to £19,174,000, showing a decrease of £1,866,000, or over 7 o/o, as compared with July, 1884, and this decrease is practically spread over all classes of commodities, being perhaps especially marked in the two important divisions of textile and metal products. The figures relating to the cotton trade naturally continue to evince great stagnation. The total shrinkage under this head amounts to £527,000, or nearly 10 o/o, as compared with last year. Piece goods have declined 6½ o/o in quantity and 10 o/o in value, the loss being especially pronounced in our shipments to India and to most of the South American States."

The information given by Judge Thatcher to the press in regard to the work of the South American Commission is largely a matter of traditional history for merchants. The state of the situation of our South American trade has been long understood; but the need is for practical recommendations to remedy the evil. Judge Thatcher suggests three. He advises that a great convention be held at which delegates of this nation and the South American states shall attempt to lay some general principles to govern the trade of this portion of the continent; secondly, that a common coin be established as a means of facilitating this trade; and thirdly, that steamship lines be subsidized to execute the trade. As for the first there can be no objection, provided the delegates meet in the United States, where they may study our industries at first hand. The United States, however will be cautious in establishing any more trade dollars with nations whose monetary policy is not traditionally strong and sympathetic with that of European nations. Concerning the last point, even if Peru, the Argentine Republic, Uruguay and Chili are willing to aid shipping companies, there should be but one opinion. Subsidizing is not for the United States until our present incongruous revenue system is reformed.—Bradstreet's.

According to the Chilian Times the yearly statistics of the State railways show those lines "are the most dangerous infernal machines for the manufacture of cripples, widows, and orphans ever invented," lamentable accidents being of almost daily occurrence throughout the system. The chief reason of all this seems to be inferior construction and bad management by inexperienced native officials.

The R.M.S. Tagus took the following saloon passengers for Europe:—

David A. Shennan, C. Oppenheimer, Eduardo Norton, Roberto Kinch, Teodoro Hubbard, Alfredo Boyd, William Russell, and some third-class.

She took £60,000 stg.
